

GLYPH

Cast bronze, wood, and metal sculptures are suspended from a wall-mounted peg rack that hangs above a hand-carved bench. This piece was conceived for a hallway. An overlooked domestic space, often frequented but never truly seen, the hallway is in fact the entry point to an intimate world and should be a reflection of whomever resides within. Glyph was created to set a tone of curiosity and wonder from the first step into a personal space. The work is designed to be customized to fit clients' individual spaces.
